

THAILAND ESSENTIALSLabour Ministry campaigns for Good Labour Practices

The Ministry of Labour has announced its partnership with the Thai Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Trade of Thailand to promote Good Labour Practices (GLP) in an MoU signing ceremony presided by Labour Minister Suchart Chomklin on Sept 15. The Department of Labour Protection and Welfare, Ministry of Labour, has encouraged employers to adopt GLP to improve employment and working conditions to be in line with international labour standards to improve employees' quality of life, prevent child and forced labour, combat discrimination and tackle human trafficking. Employers or proprietors who're interested in adopting GLP can call 02-660-2105 for more info.

